A POETRY SHOWCASE.

You are invited to Back Talk: A Poetry Showcase. Back Talk is a spoken word poetry program generously funded by the Toronto Arts Council and run by Canvas Programs.

The program is a writing space for queer and questioning youth to write and share their stories, with focuses on community building and empowerment. This showcase features amazing artists, lived experience, deeply moving poetry from the program, and an open mic for community.

Come spend an evening full of storytelling with us.
